

Argos Georgia Delivery date February 2018

Ice strengthened with 20mm steel plating

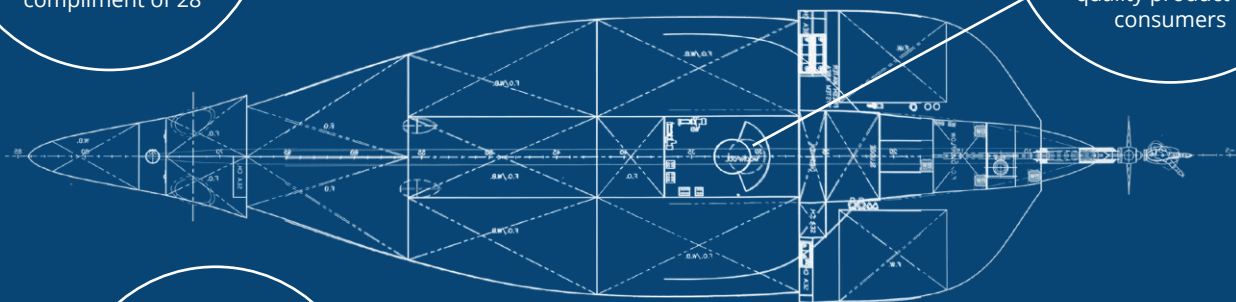

Fuel efficiency improved by 30% thanks to modern hull design and innovative drive system saving 340 tonnes of carbon emissions a year

Enhanced labs, communications systems and separate living quarters for independent observers

Our vessel will be equipped with labs, communications systems and separate living quarters for independent observers, plus living environments for a full complement of 28

Fish will be brought on-board through a moon pool, offering the safest working conditions for the crew and the surest way to provide a high quality product for consumers

The on-board freezing plant will be able to rapidly freeze the fish to minus 30 degrees, perfectly preserving its freshness

The fishing equipment is the latest and most advanced on the market